

Program of Invertebrate seminar (spring 2018)

(Thursday 15:00 – 16:50, Zoological collections room)

- 1.3. Vlado Hemala – Report on the research stay in Poland
Igor Malenovský - Report on the research stay in Brazil (continuation)
- 8.3. Jiří Schlaghamerský – about TAČR project
- 15.3. Zdeněk Račanský - Report on the field trip in Croatia
Ondřej Michálek – Journal Club
- 22.3. Jiří Procházka – about Vúkoz
Martin Vašíček – Bug in spider web
- 29.3. Domagoj Gajski (student from Croatia) – about his previous work and planned research
Lenka Petráková – Report on the the research stay in Denmark
- 5.4. Life Science Seminar – Glenn King: Thinking Outside the Box: Could Spiders Provide a New Generation of Eco-Friendly Insecticides? (16:00, room 132, building A11)
- 12.4. Yun-Yun Tsai – Titanoeca project and planned research
Martin Starý, David Kopr – Journal Club
- 19.4. Martin Jurák – Bc. thesis (in Czech) (15:00)
Botanical Seminar - Miroslav Kolařík: Hmyzí farmáři – o nerozlučném přátelství herbivorního hmyzu a hub (16:00, room 114, building A11) (in Czech)
- 26.4. Tereza Špinková – Bc. thesis (in Czech)
Tomáš Němec - MSc. Thesis (in Czech)
- 3.5. Alastair Gibbons (student from Great Britain) - about his previous work and planned research
Stano Pekár - Report on the field trip in Uruguay
- 10.5. Jana Hintenausová – MSc. Thesis (in Czech)
Kateřina Němcová - Bc. thesis (in Czech)